All three musicians hail from Scotland, and were professionally trained at respected conservatories - the Royal Northern College of Music and Indiana University (Jennifer), Oxford University and the Guildhall School of Music (Harriet), the Royal Scottish Academy and the Guildhall School of Music (Claire). In addition to their chamber music commitments, they each pursue busy and diverse freelance careers.

She has played with various UK orchestras including the CBSO and RSNO, has broadcast on BBC Radio 3 and has performed in the Aldeburgh Festival, the Algarve International Music Festival, and at St Martin-in-the-Fields, London.

Programme

Mozart

Kegelstatt Trio in E flat major, K 498

- Andante
- Menuetto
- Allegretto

Written in 1786 and dedicated to a student. Mozart wrote several pieces for her family. Kegelstatt means "a place where skittles are played", the nickname originally relating to another piece for two horns!

Gwyneth Walker

Craftsbury Trio

- Up-Country Toccata
- The Lark in the Morning
- You Can Buy it at the General Store
- Craftsbury Common

The music of American composer Gwyneth Walker (b. 1947) is beloved for its energy, beauty, reverence, drama, and humor. Commissioned by the Craftsbury Chamber Players in celebration of its 25th season, 1966-1990. The piece evokes Craftsbury, Vermont with its open and stark landscape and gentle pace of life.

Interval

Faure

Elegie, for cello & piano, op 24

Written in 1880, originally for cello and piano, as the slow movement for a planned sonata. Features a sad and sombre opening and climaxes with an intense, tempestuous central section before returning to the elegiac opening theme in C minor. The sonata was never completed, but Elegie was a stand-alone success and later orchestrated.

Debussy

"Reflets dans l'eau" from 'Images, Book 1'

Solo piano.

Brahms

Trio in A minor, op 114

- Allegro
- Adagio
- Andantino grazioso
- Allegro

One of 4 chamber works featuring the clarinet, the Trio was written in 1891. This was after Brahms had declared his creative life done! The overall mood of the piece is sombre but includes both romantic and introspective qualities. A friend of Brahms, wrote of the trio that "It is as though the instruments were in love with each other."
